

October 20, 1966

60' Dean Honey ✓

Services for Dean Honey, 71, were at 2:00 p. m., Wednesday, Oct. 12, in the Presbyterian church with the Rev. Robert Carey and the Rev. K. Oliver Brekke officiating. Burial was in the Groton cemetery.

Mr. Honey passed away at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen, on Monday.

Music was provided by a quartet composed of Mrs. Robert Carey, Mrs. Clayton Sternhagen, Paul E. Krueger and Randall Hall Jr., who sang, "Ivory Palaces" and "In the Garden" accompanied by Mrs. Joe Williams, organist.

Honorary pall bearers were George Alberts Sr., Richard Dorfschmidt, Frank Jensen, Jack Johnson, William Paetznick and Chester Thompson.

Active pall bearers were Kenneth Alberts, Norman Cain, Dale Hosley, Harry Pharis Sr., Jay Swisher and Emery Sipel.

Mr. Honey was born May 30, 1895, in Putney. He was married to Matie Gibbs, Sept. 19, 1919, in Aberdeen, and had lived in the Groton-Putney area all his life.

Dean was a kind and loving father, neighbor and friend and was deeply loved by all who knew him. His genial disposition and upright character endeared him to all his acquaintances. He will be greatly missed by his family and those who had the privilege of knowing him.

He was a member of the Methodist church and Elks Lodge.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Jack (Millicent) Gilchrist, Columbia; Mrs. Eugene (June) Craig, Groton; Mrs. Lynn (Geraldine) Bowles, Grand Prairie, Texas; and Mrs. Harlow (Lucille) Kerl, Aberdeen; 16 grandchildren; one great granddaughter; one brother, Harold, Seattle, Wash.; and one sister, Mrs. Anna Mae Jones, Brookings; also a sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Gibbs of this city.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Paetznick - Garness Funeral Chapel.